

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 19, 2024

ASSAULT

Colonial Forge High School, 550 Courthouse Road, 8/16, 7:25 a.m. Deputy G.M. Lum was conducting his SRO duties when he was informed of an assault. One student assaulted another first thing in the morning. When the victim's friends attempted to stop the assaulting student, she would assault them as well. Four criminal complaints for assault and battery were filed.

DUI

Forbes Street, 8/17, 12:33 a.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to a single vehicle auto accident. The caller advised a driver decided to plant his vehicle into some bushes. The prickly situation blossomed when the caller further advised the driver appeared intoxicated and was falling over himself. The driver had signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming roughly five beers prior to driving. While the driver requested if he could just walk it off and walk home, deputies insisted on giving him a free ride to Rappahannock Regional Jail. He was charged with driving under the influence and held until sober.

Sunoco, 201 Emancipation Highway, 8/17, 1:23 a.m. Deputy A.J. Charoentep was on Butler Road when he observed a motorcycle without any rear lights on. Deputy Charoentep conducted a traffic stop on the bike, but prior to the bike stopping, witnessed the driver lose control and nearly crash. The driver had signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming three beers. The driver was charged with driving under the influence and having improper tail lights. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

FRAUD

Public Safety Building, 1225 Courthouse Road, 8/16, 7:36 p.m. Deputy W.E. Trainor responded to a fraud in the lobby. The victim advised she received a call from "Lieutenant Jeffery Jenkins," who advised she missed court. The lying lieutenant demanded the victim to purchase gift cards for him to avoid being arrested. The Sheriff's Office does not have a Lieutenant Jenkins and will never request money over the phone. If you get a call like this, please report it.

Target, 25 South Gateway Drive, 8/16, 4:07 p.m. Deputy R.L. Hubbard responded to a larceny. Staff advised they noticed a repeat shoplifter concealing items. He was stopped by staff, identified, and forced to return the stolen items. A warrant for shoplifting was obtained.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

7-Eleven, 1947 Richmond Highway, 8/17, 2:26 a.m. Deputy W.E. Trainor responded to an intoxicated person call. The caller advised a male was stumbling around the business knocking things over. When Deputy Trainor arrived, he made contact with the shirtless suspect who had signs of intoxication. The suspect, who identified himself as "Demon" was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Centreport Parkway, 8/17, 9:01 p.m. Deputy K.P. Hall responded to a disturbance. The caller advised a male was attempting to wave down vehicles. Deputy Hall made contact with the shirtless suspect who had signs of intoxication. The suspect advised his vehicle broke down; however, no vehicle was located nearby. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

TRESPASS

Wawa, 105 Garrisonville Road, 8/16, 6:33 p.m. Sergeant M.L. Jacobeen responded to a trespassing call. Staff advised despite being forbidden to enter the property, a male suspect did just that. Sergeant Jacobeen would make contact with the male, who he knew from previous interactions, and discovered he was wanted out of Spotsylvania County. The suspect was charged with trespassing and served on his outstanding warrant. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.
