

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 27, 2024

DISTURBANCE

Clear Spring Lane, 8/25, 1:05 a.m. Deputies responded to a disturbance. An unsupervised party got out of hand and numerous people were fighting in the street. Deputies arrived and separated the parties. As a result, two females were charged with assault and battery by mob, one female was charged with assault and battery by mob and providing a false identity to law enforcement, one female was charged with disorderly conduct, one female was charged with public intoxication, and one male was charged with disorderly conduct and obstruction of justice.

DRUGS

Kings Highway, 8/25, 10:12 p.m. Sergeant B.U. Demirci and Deputy N.J. Amato responded to an unknown problem. The unknown problem was discovered to be a drug problem, for the suspect was "extremely high." The suspect would be found in possession of suspected controlled substances, and provided a false identity to deputies. After figuring out his secret identity, it was discovered the suspect had three outstanding warrants. He was served on those warrants and additionally charged with possession of controlled substances, as well as, providing a false identity to law enforcement. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

LARCENY

Buffalo Mo's, 33 Wicomico Drive, 8/26, 2:09 p.m. Deputy A.M. Pitts responded to a larceny. The victim advised his toolbox and tools were stolen from his vehicle.

THREATS

Riverton Drive, 8/25, 8:03 p.m. Deputy R.W. Stamm responded to a threat call. The victim was scammed during a Facebook Marketplace transaction. When the victim confronted the suspect, the suspect made threatening statements, including sending a picture of a gun stating "I'm coming tonight." The suspect would not actually show up; however, Deputy Stamm was able to identify the suspect and obtained a warrant for threats of death.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

Brittany Manor Way, 8/26, 9:47 p.m. Deputy C.D. Quebedeaux responded to a public intoxication call. It was advised an intoxicated female was walking down the roadway. Deputy Quebedeaux would locate the suspect lying on the ground listening to the “Mulan” soundtrack. This Girl Worth Fighting For had signs of intoxication and admitted to being “not sober.” She was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

VANDALISM

Deacon Road, 8/25, 2:49 p.m. Deputy F.A. Martinez responded to a vandalism. The victim advised his mailbox was “blown up.” Neighbors advised they heard a loud boom at approximately 3:00 a.m.

This report does not encompass all of the reported crimes that may have occurred in the county, but only those noted for media interest. Anyone with information regarding the incidents listed in this report is asked to contact the Stafford County Sheriff’s Office at (540) 658-4450. For ongoing updates, follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov