ASSAULT

7-Eleven, 25 Solomon Drive, 6/28, 4:37 p.m. Deputy I.E. Baldi responded to an assault. The victim advised her husband's ex-girlfriend had been stalking her since March. The harassment escalated today when the suspect hit the victim with her vehicle. The victim was treated for her injuries and warrants for stalking, hit and run, as well as, attempted felonious assault were obtained.

Catherine Lane, 6/29, 9:02 a.m. Sergeant A.T. Leckemby responded to an assault. The victim advised a known party who had been previously trespassed showed up once again. During this unwanted conversation, the suspect threw coffee on the victim. The suspect was located and charged with trespassing, as well as, assault and battery. She was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance.

300 block of Warrenton Road, 6/29, 12:23 p.m. Deputy A. De Hoyos responded to a weapons offense. Multiple callers advised they observed two males arguing when one of them brandished a machete. Deputy De Hoyos made contact with the victim who advised the suspect was upset he was in his panhandling spot. The argument escalated when the suspect assaulted the victim and threatened him with his machete. Deputies located the suspect and charged him with brandishing a machete, as well as, assault and battery. He was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance.

DUI

Excel Inn and Suites, 594 Warrenton Road, 6/28, 12:37 a.m. Sergeant J.D. Hurt observed a Kia make a U-turn at a solid red light and conducted a traffic stop as Deputy P.J. Leon responded to assist. The driver had signs of intoxication and a revoked license due to a prior DUI conviction. He was charged with driving under the influence while revoked, second offense refusal, and failure to obey a traffic light. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

Fas Mart, 2142 Richmond Highway, 6/28, 8:47 a.m. Deputy J.L. Jones and Deputy F.A. Martinez responded to a drunk driver complaint. The caller advised there was a female driver "nodding off" behind the wheel. The driver, who advised she just got out of court, had signs of intoxication. Deputy Martinez deployed his K-9 partner, Mija, who alerted on the vehicle and suspected controlled substances were located. The driver was charged with driving under the influence, possession of controlled substances, and driving with a suspended license. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

Intersection of Richmond Highway and Washington Drive, 6/28, 9:35 a.m. Deputy B.W. Gildea responded to an unknown problem. The caller advised there was a female asleep behind the wheel. When Deputy Gildea arrived, he located the suspect still asleep behind the wheel of a vehicle still in drive with a one year old in the backseat. When the driver woke up, she advised she was going to her sister's house after just leaving her sister's house. She further advised she consumed "a beer or two." She was charged with driving under the influence second offense within five years with a blood alcohol content between .15 and .2 with a child present, child neglect, and driving while revoked. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $3,000 secured bond.

Choptank Road, 6/28, 11:54 p.m. Deputy T.G. Croson responded to a disturbance. A Jeep was stopped in the roadway and multiple parties were involved in a verbal argument. It was discovered the driver was driving her friends home after a day at the beach. As courteous as that is, she was intoxicated and ran out of gas. This resulted in a verbal argument that escalated when the driver assaulted one of the parties. She was charged with driving under the influence, refusal, as well as, assault and battery. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Wawa, 1172 Garrisonville Road, 6/29, 8:59 p.m. Deputy C.R. Newman responded to a hit and run. The caller advised a vehicle struck a light pole. An off-duty deputy in the area observed the suspect vehicle drive into the Wawa parking lot. Deputy Newman made contact with the driver, who despite having signs of intoxication, advised he consumed "not much" beer. "Not much" was still too much and the driver was charged with driving under the influence and reckless driving. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

LARCENY

Target, 25 South Gateway Drive, 6/29, 6:08 p.m. Deputy E.L. Shelton responded to a larceny. Staff advised they observed a female suspect concealing items. The suspect was stopped and the nearly $315 worth of items was recovered. She was issued a summons for shoplifting.
