

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JULY 2, 2024

DISTURBANCE

Cynthias Place, 6/30, 2:21 p.m. Deputy B.W. Gildea responded to a possible breaking and entering. The caller advised he observed someone unlawfully enter his apartment on surveillance cameras. Deputies arrived and located the suspect, who was wanted out of Stafford County for a felony capias offense and possession of controlled substances. Within the residence, Deputy Gildea located multiple items belonging to the suspect and among them were suspected controlled substances. She was served on her outstanding warrants and additionally charged with possession of controlled substances. Breaking and entering charges are pending.

Aquia Harbour Police Station, 1040 Aquia Drive, 7/1, 5:06 p.m. Deputy J.J. Holetzky responded to a disturbance. The reporting party advised she was "forced" to consume beer while on a DoorDash delivery. Having trouble understanding the allegation, deputies questioned the reporting party further. She would eventually admit to making up the story in order to not get in trouble with her employer. She instead would be in trouble with law enforcement and was charged with filing a false police report.

Warrenton Road Commuter Lot, 7/1, 8:50 p.m. Deputy S.A. Hensley responded to a disturbance. The caller advised he observed a male suspect pulling on vehicle handles before discovering an unlocked BMW. When Deputy Hensley arrived, he observed the suspect still within the BMW. Contact was made with the vehicle's owner and confirmed the suspect had no business being in his vehicle. The suspect was charged with unlawfully entry into a vehicle and was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail pending his ability to participate in a bond hearing.

DUI

Fas Mart, 620 Cambridge Street, 6/30, 2:30 a.m. Deputy L.T. Ward was in the area when he observed a vehicle traveling 62 MPH in a 45 MPH zone. Deputy Ward conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver, who had noticeable signs of intoxication. During their conversation, Deputy Ward discovered the driver hid suspected controlled substances in his sock. The driver was charged with driving under the influence, possession of controlled substances, and refusal. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Intersection of Richmond Highway and Garrisonville Road, 7/1, 1:22 p.m. Deputy C.D. Sullivan responded to an intoxicated person call. While traffic in the area is normally congested, it was exacerbated when a male who appeared to be on drugs was walking in the roadway. Deputy Sullivan made contact with the suspect and noticed signs of intoxication. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Best Western Inn, 2868 Richmond Highway, 7/1, 7:27 p.m. Deputy B.M. Stanfill responded to an unknown problem. It was advised a female was lying on the ground. Deputies, as well as Fire and Rescue, arrived and located the female still asleep on the ground. When sleeping beauty woke up, she began cursing and got aggressive towards deputies. Deputies also noticed signs of intoxication. She was charged with public intoxication and allowed to continue her nap at Rappahannock Regional Jail where she was held until sober.
