

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JULY 26, 2024

DISTURBANCE

Woodland Drive, 7/25, 2:05 a.m. Deputy C.A. Osborne responded to a noise complaint. The caller advised a pick-up was blasting loud music. When Deputy Osborne arrived, he discovered the truck was occupied by a male and an intoxicated juvenile. The male was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor and was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

DRUGS

Genesis Logistics, 705 Bradburn Place, 7/25, 8:37 a.m. If anyone left their controlled substances at Genesis Logistics, the Sheriff's Office is now in possession of it. Deputy C.M. Ramirez made contact with an employee who advised suspected controlled substances were located on the ground. The items were seized for destruction.

Rappahannock Regional Jail, 1745 Richmond Highway, 7/25, 5:22 p.m. Deputy J.J. Holetzky responded to drug activity. Jail staff advised while doing a body scan on a recently transferred inmate, they located a foreign object inside him. The bag was properly removed and discovered to contain suspected controlled substances. The dirty drugs were seized and a warrant for felony by a prisoner was obtained.

LARCENY

Amherst Avenue, 7/25, 11:22 a.m. Deputy J.E. Cordes responded to a larceny. The victim advised his catalytic converter was stolen.

Walgreens, 50 White Oak Road, 7/25, 6:27 p.m. Deputy A.J. Charoentep responded to a larceny. Staff advised a female suspect exited the store with unpaid hair dye and a four pack of premixed margaritas. When the suspect realized that hair dye wasn't her style, she would return it to the store before consuming all four drinks in the parking lot.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Red Roof Inn, 153 Garrisonville Road, 7/25, 6:39 a.m. Deputy C.D. Sullivan responded to an intoxicated person. The caller advised a male was in front of the business under the influence.
