

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JULY 30, 2024

DRUGS

Red Roof Inn, 153 Garrisonville Road, 7/28, 6:00 a.m. Deputy B.W. Gildea conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle for an expired registration and failure to use a turn signal. While the two passengers loudly voiced their displeasure for being stopped, Deputy F.A. Martinez arrived with his K-9 partner, Mija. Mija alerted to the vehicle, providing deputies with probable cause to search it. During their search, suspected controlled substances were located that belonged to the displeased passengers. Both were charged with possession of controlled substances and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond. The driver was released with only a summons for the expired registration.

DUI

Dairy Queen, 207 Kings Highway, 7/29, 6:24 p.m. Deputy A.J. Charoentep responded to an unknown problem. The caller advised there was a female laying in the parking lot advising she was "not okay." Deputy Charoentep made contact with the suspect who had signs of intoxication. Next to the suspect was her vehicle, which had empty alcohol bottles within it. Using business cameras deputies confirmed the suspect drove to this location before falling down due to her level of intoxication. She was charged with driving under the influence second offense within five years, drinking while driving, and driving while suspended. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $10,000 secured bond.

LARCENY

Lake Mooney Boat Launch, 500 Greenbank Road, 7/28, 11:45 a.m. First Sergeant J.D. Floirendo responded to a larceny. Someone smashed one of the victim's vehicle windows in order to steal sunscreen and medicine.

Duff McDuff Park, 75 James Ashby Parkway, 7/28, 1:01 p.m. Deputy D.R. Ludolph responded to two larcenies. Both victims had a window of their vehicle smashed and their wallet stolen from it. Both would then observe fraudulent charges on the stolen credit cards.

Government Island, 199 Coal Landing Road, 7/28, 2:30 p.m. Deputy C.S. Harding responded to a larceny. Just like in the previous larceny report, the victim had a window smashed and a wallet stolen.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Weis, 50 Foreston Woods Drive, 7/29, 11:00 a.m. Deputy S.M. Craig responded to an unknown problem. Multiple customers advised there was a female slumped over in the parking lot. Deputy Craig made contact with the suspect who had very noticeable signs of intoxication. The suspect advised she was only napping. She would be allowed to continue her nap at Rappahannock Regional Jail where she was charged with public intoxication. She was held until sober.

Falmouth Beach, 401 River Road, 7/29, 8:20 p.m. Sergeant E.E. West and Deputy M.N. Sayegh located two individuals with alcohol. Considering the clearly labeled alcohol free zone signs, this was a problem. Both were found to be intoxicated. One of the suspects was also discovered to be in possession of a fake social security card. Suspect one was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober. The second suspect was charged with public intoxication and possession of a fictitious identity. He was held without bond.

Sheetz, 15 Wyche Road, 9:50 p.m. Deputy W.E. Trainor responded to an unknown problem. Staff advised there was a male arguing with teenagers and begging females to twerk. Not surprisingly, the suspect had signs of intoxication. He also had a bag of stolen snacks from the business. He was charged with public intoxication, shoplifting, and obstruction of justice. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

TRAFFIC OFFENSE

Salisbury Drive, 7/28, 1:22 a.m. Sergeant R.S. Dominguez was on Staffordboro Boulevard when he observed a vehicle nearly collide with another deputy's cruiser. After witnessing the near miss, Sergeant Dominguez conducted a traffic stop. The 15-year-old unlicensed driver assumed she could get out of a ticket by lying about her name and age. She assumed wrong and only made things worse. Criminal complaints for driving without a license and providing a false identity to law enforcement were filed as the vehicle was towed.
