

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JULY 8, 2024

ASSAULT

Shasta Place, 7/6, 1:14 a.m. Deputy D.A. Robertson responded to an assault. The victim and suspect got into a physical altercation that ended when the victim's grandmother separated them. The suspect was determined to be the predominant aggressor and was charged with assault and battery. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail pending his ability to participate in a bond hearing.

DISTURBANCE

2200 block of Courthouse Road, 7/3, 2:37 a.m. Deputy W.E. Trainor responded to a disturbance. It was advised a known party arrived unannounced at the residence. The unwelcome guest threatened to beat up both parties before running over their fire pit. The incident was captured on video. Warrants for trespassing, destruction of property and two counts of assault were obtained.

DUI

West Ridge Court, 7/3, 10:05 p.m. Deputy N.J. Amato was traveling on Layhill Road when he observed a vehicle fail to maintain its lane multiple times. Deputy Amato conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver, who advised he just got "turned around". Deputy Amato would observe signs of intoxication that might have contributed to him getting so turned around. The driver would not have a valid driver's license or inspection sticker. It was also discovered he had three prior DUI convictions. The driver was charged with fourth offense driving under the influence within 10 years, driving without a license, and no inspection sticker. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

2700 block of Richmond Highway, 7/4, 2:26 p.m. Deputy J.L. Jones located a driver who started his Fourth of July celebration early. While finishing with another traffic stop, Deputy Jones observed a vehicle traveling approximately 60 MPH in a 35 MPH zone. Deputy Jones conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver, who had signs of intoxication. The driver advised he only had "one beer," at a nearby park. Within the vehicle Deputy Jones located an open bottle of beer. The driver was charged with driving under the influence, drinking while driving, and

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

reckless driving. He would watch the fireworks from Rappahannock Regional Jail where he was held until sober.

Princess Anne Street, 7/4, 5:50 p.m. Deputy S.C. Martin observed a vehicle driving recklessly and conducted a traffic stop. The driver, who had signs of intoxication, admitted to consuming “a few” beers before getting behind the wheel. After being detained under suspicion of driving impaired, deputies that are certified phlebotomists attempt to conduct a blood draw. The suspect would continuously interfere and prevent this. He was charged with driving under the influence and obstruction of justice. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $5,000 secured bond.

Onville Road, 7/4, 9:29 p.m. Deputy S.A. Edwards responded to a disturbance. The victim advised while at a family member’s residence, a known party drove to the residence in an intoxicated state. He would strike her vehicle with his own and made threats to “burn down buildings” if provoked. Deputies were able to locate the suspect in the Staffordboro Commuter Lot due to him posting about it on Snapchat. The driver would have clear signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming six beers. He was charged with driving under the influence, threats to bomb, refusal, as well as, hit and run. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

Leeland Road, 7/6, 6:45 p.m. Deputy A.E. Epps was traveling in the area when she observed the vehicle in front of her swaying in their lane. Deputy Epps conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver. The driver had signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming two beers at Falmouth Beach earlier. He was charged with driving under the influence with a blood alcohol content between .15 and .2. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

Intersection of Warrenton Road and Banks Ford Parkway, 7/6, 11:53 p.m. Deputy D.A. Robertson was driving Southbound on Warrenton Road when he observed a vehicle run a red light. Deputy Robertson conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver. The driver, who had just left a party where he consumed three beers, advised he didn’t think there would be an issue running the red light. The new issue was Deputy Robertson observed several signs of intoxication. The driver was charged with driving under the influence and was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

INDECENT EXPOSURE

Dollar General, 1348 Courthouse Road, 7/6, 9:48 a.m. Deputy S.M. Craig responded to an indecent exposure. Staff advised they observed a male suspect expose himself within the business. Deputy

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

Craig made contact with the suspect who advised he was only “readjusting it.” He was charged with indecent exposure and was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $2,500 secured bond.

LARCENY

Walmart, 125 Washington Square Plaza, 7/3, 8:13 a.m. Deputy D.J. Ferrell responded to a larceny. A male suspect asked staff for help with purchasing over $2,000 worth of electronics. After the items were unlocked from the secured drawer, the suspect ran out of the store with them.

Burger King, 426 Kings Highway, 7/3, 9:07 p.m. Deputy E.I. Baldi responded to a larceny. The victim advised after having it his way he left a bag within the business that contained multiple items including credit cards, and a personal check. After realizing he did not have the bag, he would return to the business two hours later to discover it was gone.

Curtis Lake Park, 58 Jesse Curtis Lane, 7/3, 9:30 p.m. Deputy S.A. Edwards responded to a larceny. The victim advised while swimming someone unlawfully entered her vehicle and stole credit cards. She would later receive notice from her banks of fraudulent activity.

Harbor Freight, 263 Garrisonville Road, 7/4, 8:15 a.m. Deputy S.M. Eastman responded to a larceny. Staff advised a well-known shoplifter stole once again the day prior. A warrant for grand larceny was obtained.

Harbor Freight, 263 Garrisonville Road, 7/5, 3:41 p.m. Deputy C.D. Quebedeaux responded to a larceny. A shopper observed a male suspect shoplifting and obtained the suspect vehicle’s license plate. Using the license plate, and numerous cameras within the business, Deputy Quebedeaux identified the suspect. The next day, Deputy J.E. Cordes located the suspect and detained him without incident. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

CVS, 450 Chatham Heights Road, 7/5, 6:34 p.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to a larceny. Staff advised three females entered the store and stole approximately $4,000 worth of skincare items.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Cliff Circle, 7/5, 1:15 a.m. Deputy B.E. Vaughn responded to a medical emergency. A female was unresponsive. As Deputy Vaughn tended to the female, an intoxicated male showed up. He would be belligerent, ripped off his shirt, and continuously got in deputies and rescues way as they were caring for the female. Due to his level of intoxication, belligerent behavior, and obstructing the care of the female, he was detained. He was charged with public intoxication, obstruction of justice, and obstructing rescue. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $3,000 secured bond.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

Motel 6, 401 Warrenton Road, 7/6, 8:33 a.m. Sergeant M.E. Gordon was at the business for an unrelated matter when she observed an unbalanced male in the parking lot. Sergeant Gordon made contact with the suspect and observed several signs of intoxication. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Falmouth Beach, 401 River Road, 7/6, 4:33 p.m. Due to the recent incidents in the area, Deputy A.E. Epps and Deputy S.A. Hensley were patrolling the area. While doing so, they observed a male attempting to hide items. He did not do a good job doing so and deputies observed him with empty alcohol bottles. He and his friend had signs of intoxication and both were charged with public intoxication. Both were held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Falmouth Beach, 401 River Road, 7/6, 7:45 p.m. Sergeant E.E. West and Deputy M.A. Holub were patrolling the area when they observed a female drinking a margarita. The suspect advised she was about to drive, but deputies did not think that was a good idea due to her signs of intoxication. She was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

VANDALISM

Country Inn and Suites, 7/5, 12:09 p.m. Deputy N.D. Fonseca responded to a vandalism. It was advised a male and female suspect left the room in complete disarray. Multiple items were damaged and the cost to repair it was $1,250.

WARRANT SERVED

Days Inn Motel, 14 Simpson Road, 7/3, 11:20 p.m. Deputies responded to a wanted suspect at the business. The suspect was wanted out of Henrico County for failure to appear, as well as, the city of Charlottesville for failure to pay child support. At first, the suspect pretended to not be home, but that did not work. He was informed multiple times that he was under arrest and he could either come out or deputies would go in and retrieve him. The suspect would pick the latter option and deputies entered the room to detain him. While being detained, the suspect would continuously make a scene. He was served on his outstanding warrants and additionally charged with obstruction of justice and disorderly conduct. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

This report does not encompass all of the reported crimes that may have occurred in the county, but only those noted for media interest. Anyone with information regarding the incidents listed in this report is asked to contact the Stafford County Sheriff's Office at (540) 658-4450. For ongoing updates, follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov